

FULL TIME / DIETZENBACH

IT-Support Specialist /Network-administrator (m/f/n)

The DVS TECHNOLOGY GROUP unites leading specialist companies with one common idea: to machine surfaces in such a way that the challenges of the future can be met - both for classic and alternative drives as well as for general industry. We employ over 1,400 people worldwide and are one of the leading international system providers for machines, tools and production solutions. Wherever something moves in the future, we move the future with it. one group, one drive: shaping tomorrow - be a part of it.

Your tasks, among others:

- + Administration from Windows server systems
- + User support in a Windows environment (1st and 2nd level)
- + Management and maintenance of Windows 10 clients (Patch management, etc.)
- + Organisation and documentation of PCs, users and groups in M365 and Active Directory on Premise
- + Support with server/network administration (VMWare virtualisation; Veeam backup; managed LAN)
- + Planning and implementation of IT projects in coordination with internal departments and external staff

Your profile:

- + Completed training as an IT specialist, computer scientist, communications electronics technician or comparable training/further training in the IT environment
- + Very good knowledge of the entire Microsoft product range in the client and server area
- + Good knowledge of virtualisation (VMware)
- + Commitment and willingness to learn new complex systems
- + Willingness to take responsibility, goal orientation and structured approach
- + Good knowledge of German and English, both written and spoken